22-25 June 1991

The Mediterranean Maritime Arbitration Association ("M.M.A.A."), has been established in 1990 in Genoa. Its President is Mr. José Maria Alcantara Gonzalez (Spain), Vice President Mr. Moufid Kamal Eldib (Egypt) and Secretary General Mr. Mario Riccomagno (Italy).

Its Council is made up of distinguished lawyers and practitioners from different parts of the Mediterranean.

The principal objective of the Association is to promote the study, development, legislation and practice of maritime arbitration in the Mediterranean.

The Secretariat of the Association is at 4 Via Garibaldi, 16124 Genoa (Italy); fax +10-2094376; telex 286325.

In view of the proposed Regulation of the EEC Council, to be effective as from January 1993, the M.M.A.A. has organized a Seminar with the aim of analyzing and discussing with the assistance of experts the economical, legal and social consequences of such a legislation over the Mediterranean Countries.

The Seminar will be held parallelly with an another Seminar, on the same date and venue, of the Instituto Hispano-Luso-Americano de Derecho Maritimo on "The Charter Parties in the Nineties".

The time table for the Seminar and for the social events is the following
